Townsville ready to Rock N' Grohl!

The stage is set for one of the biggest shows to ever come to Townsville, with Foo Fighters ready to rock Queensland Country Bank Stadium for the first time tomorrow night.

Foo Fighters, supported by Australian acts Full Flower Moon Band and Downgirl, will perform their Take Cover Tour in front of a packed stadium crowd, bringing one the world's biggest bands to North Queensland.

Renowned for their marathon sets and career-spanning performances, the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame inductees are ready to put on an unforgettable night of wall-to-wall, including smash hits like The Pretender, Best of You, and My Hero.

Set up for the concert began on Sunday, with over 30 truckloads of staging and production gear set to arrive, and around 200 production staff undertaking the six-day construction of the flooring, stage and dressing of the set.

Delivery of food and beverages has also commenced, with concertgoers expected to have 7,500 soft drinks, 4,500 hot chips, 1,400 burgers, and 700 ice creams on Saturday night.

Dedicated bars, water stations and toilets will be installed for standing patrons, along with free water stations throughout the venue.

Fans are encouraged to arrive early, have their tickets downloaded via the AXS app before they arrive, and plan their journey to the stadium to ensure they don't miss any of the action.

In addition to usual event transport, special event buses will be running from Kirwan, Bushland Beach and the Ferry Terminal to Central Park.

Gates open at 4pm, and the show starts at 5:30pm.
